

MyFreeActingClass.com

=====

STORY QUESTIONS

=====

1. Story: Who, what, where, when, why, how. Descriptive words for characters. Moment before, moment after. The story from your perspective.

2. Style: Episodic/pilot/feature/MOW/etc.; Comedy or Drama; tone, genre.

3. Relationships: Strong feelings or opinions about people, objects and events. When have you felt that way in your life (or) what might make you feel that way?

4. Changes: How your feelings/opinions change, how the story changes. Arc. Beats.

5. Want: What do you most want? What are you trying to get the other person to do or feel so you get it?

CHARACTERS YOU ARE MOST LIKELY TO BE PAID FOR

A character that reflects a real part your life/experience/personality/etc, that you can perform with enough skill that it tells the story, fits the style, and seems real/easy/natural to the folks watching, where how you look and sound on camera fits into existing film+tv stereotypes in a way that fits the story.

A character that reflects how you look and sound on camera in a way that fits into existing film+tv stereotypes in a way that fits the story, that you can perform with enough skill that it tells the story, fits the style, and seems real/easy/natural to folks watching.

TYPE

How the way you look and sound on camera fits film+tv stereotypes

EASE

Acting that tells the story, fits the style, and seems easy, confident, natural, effortless.

ESSENCE

All the many aspects of who you are as a person.